Local Involvement

When at home, keep the team unity going through activities that relates to the work at GYTTE.

- Prepare a Mexican meal at your church and share your volunteer story. Here is a site with some typical recipes from the Puebla area, or do an internet search to find others. Be sure an play some huapangos and sones jarochos at your dinner—here's a Spotify playlist for you to use!
- Teach ESL in your community. Public libraries often offer these classes and need volunteers.
- Educate yourself about immigration issues and become an advocate for fair treatment of all people.
- Research hunger statistics in your community. Get involved with agencies that are addressing it. Take up a canned food drive at your congregation, help at the local food bank or food pantry, or volunteer at Meals On Wheels.
- Volunteer at area medical clinics or hospitals, especially if they serve the Hispanic community.
- Learn Spanish! Even if you just learn a few phrases, your efforts will be greatly appreciated by your Mexican sisters and brothers.
- Start a covenant partnership with Global Ministries missionaries Nan McCurdy and/or Miguel Mairena.
